Chapter 35: Brucellosis
RULE §35.2(l)(6). General Requirements.

A person may protest an initial test or a herd plan for the prevention or elimination of brucellosis in each herd classified as affected, adjacent, or high risk due to a reactor or suspect animal, after consultation with the state-federal veterinarian of the Brucellosis Control Program.
(A) To protest, the herd owner must request a meeting, in writing, with the executive director of the commission within 15 days of receipt of the herd plan or notice of an initial test and set forth a short, plain statement of the issues that shall be the subject of the protest, after which:
   (i) the meeting will be set by the executive director no later than 21 days from receipt of the request for a meeting;
   (ii) the meeting or meetings shall be held in Austin; and
   (iii) the executive director shall render his decision in writing within 14 days from date of the meeting.
(B) Upon receipt of a decision or order by the executive director which the herd owner wishes to appeal, the herd owner may file an appeal within 15 days in writing with the chairman of the commission and set forth a short, plain statement of the issues that shall be the subject of the appeal.
(C) The subsequent hearing will be conducted pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, and Chapter 32 of this title (relating to Hearing and Appeal Procedures).
(D) If the executive director determines, based on epidemiological principles, that immediate action is necessary, the executive director may shorten the time limits, as set out in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph, to not less than five days. The herd owner must be provided with written notice of any time limits so shortened.

RULE §35.2(p). General Requirements.

Requirements of a quarantined pasture for "S"-branded heifers. The Commission in conjunction with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Animal and Plant Health Inspection Services (APHIS), Veterinary Services (VS) may issue an approval to a landowner or operator to operate a quarantined pasture for a period not to exceed eight months, which approval is personal to the person named, and nontransferable to any other premises from the premises described in the approval. To be considered, an applicant must submit a completed application in writing to the Texas Animal Health Commission. Hereafter, the word "operator" is used to indicate the person who received the approval to operate a quarantined pasture.
(1) The commission or USDA, APHIS, VS personnel shall make an on-site inspection of the premises prior to granting approval of the quarantined pasture to identify persons who own or control land having fence-line contact with the proposed quarantined pasture. Persons identified as owning or controlling land with fence-line contact shall be notified by the commission through certified mail of the pending application, and shall have the right to protest its approval under Chapter 32 of this title (relating to Hearing and Appeal Procedures).
   (A) Following notification of an application for a quarantined pasture for heifers, a person or persons owning or having control of land in fence-line contact with the proposed pasture may within 15 days of receipt of notification protest the application and request a meeting with the executive director of the commission in writing, stating the grounds for his protest, which grounds may include, but are not limited to, the following:
      (i) probability of disease transmission; or
(ii) condition of fences.

(B) After expiration of the period within which the persons owning or having control of land in fence-line contact with the proposed pasture may submit their protests, the executive director shall inform the protester(s) and the applicant of a meeting date, which meeting shall take place in Austin. The applicant shall furthermore be informed of the grounds stated in the protest(s).

(C) At the meeting, the protester(s) and the applicant shall have the right to adduce any evidence in support of their stated position.

(D) Within 14 days following the meeting, the executive director shall render his decision in writing and inform the protester(s) and the applicant of his decision by certified mail.

(E) Upon receipt of an adverse decision or order, the protester(s) or the applicant may within 15 days of such receipt file a written notice of appeal with the chairman of the commission stating the grounds for such appeal. The subsequent administrative hearing on the appeal shall be held before the commission in Austin, which hearing it may delegate to a hearing examiner. Such hearing shall be conducted in conformity with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act and Chapter 32 of this title (relating to Hearing and Appeal Procedures).

Chapter 40: Chronic Wasting Disease
Rule §40.3(h). Herd Status Plans for Cervidae.

Cancellation or suspension of enrollment by the Executive Director. The Executive Director may cancel or suspend enrollment after determining that the herd owner failed to comply with any requirements of this chapter. Before enrollment is canceled or suspended, notification will be provided which will inform the herd owner of the reasons for the action.

1. The herd owner may appeal the cancellation of enrollment of a herd, or loss or suspension of herd status, by writing to the Executive Director within 15 days after receipt of the action. The appeal must include all of the facts and reasons upon which the herd owner relies to show that the reasons for the action are incorrect or do not support the action.

2. The herd owner may request a meeting, in writing, with the Executive Director of the Commission within 15 days of receipt of the action and set forth a short, plain statement of the issues that shall be the subject of the meeting, after which:

   (A) The meeting will be set by the Executive Director no later than 21 days from receipt of the request for a meeting;

   (B) The meeting or meetings shall be held in Austin; and

   (C) The Executive Director shall render his decision in writing within 14 days from the date of the meeting.

3. Upon receipt of a decision or order by the Executive Director which the herd owner wishes to appeal, the herd owner may file an appeal within 15 days in writing with the Chairman of the Commission and set forth a short, plain statement of the issues that shall be the subject of the appeal.

4. The subsequent hearing will be conducted pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act and Chapter 32 of this title (relating to Hearing and Appeal Procedures).

5. If the Executive Director determines, based on epidemiological principles, that other action is necessary, the Executive Director shall provide the herd owner with written notice of the action.

Chapter 47: Authorized Personnel
RULE §47.7. Procedure for Suspension or Revocation.

(a) Upon completion of the investigation of an alleged violation, the commission shall notify the authorized person by certified mail of the facts or conduct alleged that may warrant commission action regarding the person's authorized personnel status and invite the authorized person to an informal conference.

(b) An authorized person shall have 20 days from the date of receipt of the notice to respond to the commission or waive his or her attendance at the informal conference. If an authorized person fails to respond to the commission's notice an informal conference will be scheduled. The authorized person must receive notice of the conference at least seven days prior to the conference. The conference will be held at the Texas Animal Health Commission office in Austin.

(c) At the conclusion of the informal conference, the Executive Director shall determine whether a violation occurred and take appropriate action. Such action may include no action, warning, suspension, or revocation. The Executive Director shall notify the authorized person by certified mail of his or her decision within 15 days after the informal conference.

(d) If the Executive Director determines that a violation has occurred and that disciplinary action and/or a penalty is warranted, the Executive Director will advise the licensee of the alleged violations and offer the person a settlement in the form of an agreed order that specifies the disciplinary action and/or penalty. A suspension may be in effect for a period of up to one year. An order of suspension shall identify specific conditions or prohibitions relative to the suspension. A revocation may be in effect for a period of up to two years.

(e) An authorized person shall have 20 days from the date of the receipt of the decision to submit a written response accepting the settlement offer or requesting a hearing. The administrative hearing for the appeal will be held in Austin, pursuant to Chapter 32 of this title (relating to Hearing and Appeal Procedures).

(f) If the authorized person accepts the settlement offer by signing the agreed order, the agreed order will be docketed for commission action at the next regularly scheduled commission meeting.

(g) The Executive Director may, upon written notice and pending final determination by the commission, summarily suspend a person's authorized personnel status when it is deemed necessary to protect the safety, health, and interest of the public. The Executive Director shall hold an informal conference within 14 days of the date of the suspension to determine if formal action should be initiated against the authorized person. The authorized person must receive notice of the conference at least 72 hours prior to the conference.
