

The Texas A&M Beef Cattle Short Course Veterinarians Continuing Education Program

August 5, 2018

Memorial Student Center Room 2406, Texas State Veterinarian.

Nine CE Units Available

Contact tbhairgrove@tamu.edu

979 458 3216

Cost $20.00 to cover lunch, cash or check

Parking available in Cain Parking Garage Map attached, $15.00 per day

---

8:00-8:50 Bovine Trichomoniasis, focus on the female - Thomas Hairgrove, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension

9:00-9:50 Texas Animal Health Commission Bovine Trichomoniasis, Equine Piroplasmiasis, and Equine Infectious Anemia - Andy Schwartz, Texas State Veterinarian.

10:00-10:50 Update Fever Tick and Bovine Tuberculosis in Texas - Andy Schwartz, Texas State Veterinarian.

11:00-11:50 Lessons learned in Hurricane Harvey, how to assist your clients in preparing for natural disasters - Andy Schwartz, Texas State Veterinarian.

12:00-12:25 The Longhorned Tick, its documented presence in the United States and the threat to livestock health. Pete Teel, Department of Entomology Texas A&M University.

12:25-12:50 Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory Update on new diagnostic testing - Terry Hensley, Texas A&M Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory.

1:00-1:50 Feed, forage, and water related toxicities - Murl Bailey, College of Veterinary Medicine.

2:00-2:50 Toxic plants associated with cattle losses (including reproductive loss) - Murl Bailey, College of Veterinary Medicine.

3:00-3:50 Toxic plants associated with sudden death - Murl Bailey, College of Veterinary Medicine.

4:00-4:50 Panel discussion over presented topics - Thomas Hairgrove, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service.